The road to take back District 19 and take back Congress!

Our travels took a huge step Tuesday evening at the Republican District 19 nominating convention, when our Nan Hayworth overwhelmingly won out as the endorsed candidate. The evening ended with a rousing show of Republican unity amid the upraised arms of David McFadden and Nan Hayworth, at left.

But really, that road to taking back Congress began with your work and your help in this campaign, many weeks and many months ago.

It started at kitchen tables and in living rooms across the district, as small groups of friends and neighbors heard Nan's story and pledged to help stuff envelopes, raise money or serve on our taskforces to help find solutions to the problems our nation faces.

So, thank you, from Nan and our campaign, for your hard work, your support and most of all, your continued involvement in our great democracy.
